-  Commercial Agreements
-  Corporation matters
-  Asset Protection/Structuring
-  Litigation/Dispute Resolution
-  Employment issues

Our advice is tailored to meet your personal needs and objectives and those of your business.

KEY PEOPLE

Craig Pryor

After graduating with an Honours degree in Law and a Science degree, Craig was admitted to the Supreme Court of New South Wales in 2001 and later to the High Court of Australia.

In 2005 at age 27, Craig became a partner at a leading Sutherland Shire firm and in 2013, was asked to join Bell Partners, a multiple BRW Award winning national accountancy and business advisory practice, as its Head of Commercial Law & Estate Planning, which he headed for 3 years until joining McKillop Legal as a principal.

A large part of Craig's practice involves drafting, negotiating and advising on commercial contracts, business and personal asset structuring, estate planning and asset protection, buying and selling businesses, probate and deceased estate administration, as well as business succession planning.

Craig also conducts commercial litigation and civil litigation such as that in relation to business disputes, bankruptcy and insolvency, trusts and claims on estates such as under the Succession Act.

Fionne McKillop

Fionne was admitted to practice as a solicitor in 2001 after graduating with an Honours degree in Law and a Commerce degree.

After commencing legal practice in Sydney's CBD following selection by one of Australia's top law firms, Fionne became an Associate with 2 other national firms in corporate advisory roles and a Senior Solicitor/Corporate Counsel for a NSW State Owned Corporation.

In 2011, Fionne established McKillop Legal.

Estate planning and business succession arrangements represent the majority of Fionne's practice.

McKillop Legal has the knowledge, expertise and experience to guide you through any legal issue.
